

Programs and Services for Seniors (2014-15 Edition)

http://www4.gouv.qc.ca/EN/Portail/Citoyens/Evenements/aines/Documents/guide\_aines\_anglais\_2014\_2015\_web.pdf

ISBN # 978-2-550-698698 (PDF)

CHANGES, TRANSFERS AND CANCELLATIONS

TITLE	DESCRIPTION AND SOURCE WEB SITE
Health Insurance Card	You do not have to do anything to cancel the deceased's health insurance card if you gave it to the funeral director, who will send it to the Directeur de l'état civil along with the attestation of death. If you forgot to give the card to the funeral director, you must return it to the Régie de l'assurance maladie du Québec within three months of the death. Contact the Régie de l'assurance maladie du Québec to notify it of a death that occurred outside Québec. Before you give the health insurance card to the funeral director or return it to the Régie, make note of the number as you will need it for other formalities. http://www4.gouv.qc.ca/EN/Portail/Citoyens/Evenements/deces/Pages/annulation-assurance-maladie-deces.aspx
Solidarity Tax Credit	Since July 2011, the solidarity tax credit has replaced the QST tax credit. If the deceased received payments in respect of this credit, you must notify Revenu Québec of the death. http://www4.gouv.qc.ca/EN/Portail/Citoyens/Evenements/deces/Pages/credit-solidarite.aspx
Driver's License	If the deceased had a driver's licence and you are the liquidator of the succession, you must contact the Société de l'assurance automobile du Québec to have the driver's licence cancelled. It may be possible to get a reimbursement of the fees for the full months remaining between the date of death and the expiry date of the driver's licence. If you are eligible for a reimbursement, a cheque made out to the succession will be mailed to you. To request a reimbursement, you can go to a Société de l'assurance automobile du Québec service outlet in person. You must provide: the deceased's name, full address, date of birth, driver's licence and one of the following documents: the declaratory judgment of death; the death certificate; the copy of the Declaration of Death form kept by the declarant; the coroner's report; a copy of a death-related document issued by the funeral home; the death notice published in a newspaper; the death notice published on the Internet; the burial certificate; any other document issued by a body responsible for recording a death or burying a person.

	Before you return the driver's licence, write down the number, as you may need this information later on.
--	--

<http://www4.gouv.qc.ca/EN/Portail/Citoyens/Evenements/deces/Pages/permis-conduire.aspx>